Mariners Church partners with Angels for Higher to reach out to Exceptional Families

Andy Brosche is the Director of the Exceptional Families Ministry at Mariners Church in Irvine, California. Exceptional Families is a new ministry that was formed to promote and develop meaningful relationships between Mariners Church and individuals with disabilities, their families and caregivers living in surrounding communities. The Ministry kicked off with its gala "Dancing without Limits" event on November 10, 2018. Andy had this to say after our recent meeting, "What an inspiration you both are, Trevor and Bob! Your story

"I first met Trevor several years ago at an Angels Game. He had such a huge impact on me that when I saw him at a Ducks game a few years later, I had to navigate through a large crowd just to get one of his famous and loving 'high-fives!'"

"Trevor's story has personally inspired me to work towards creating a program for adults with disabilities that will help them attain meaningful employment and build a culture of inclusion on our campus." -- teaches all of us about acceptance, love, and the power of creating an inclusive world!"

The kickoff event for the Exceptional Families Ministry at Mariners Church in Irvine, California. It was a huge success and lots of fun for volunteers, families, and participants! For more information click here.

Jackson on his first day working as a Greeter for the Cincinnati Reds

Reds' Greeters First Days on the Job

Reds! Katie's Dad said this, "Katie's first day at the Reds Team Store. Thank you and your family so very much for helping to make this happen. Words cannot begin to express my gratitude."

We believe all four new Greeters for the Reds will be exceptional at their jobs. Jackson, Katie, Matthew and Ryan, all are very committed to welcoming people to the Reds Team Store. All four have supportive families, friends and people praying for them.

We know that over the years all four Greeters will become known, admired and often loved by the untold thousands of sports fans, fellow employees, team executives and professional athletes!

Angels for Higher Interviewed on Live Radio for World Down Syndrome Day!

Trevor, Melissa and Bob wrapped up World Down Syndrome Day on March 21st with a lively, hour-long interview conducted by 30-year veteran radio authority and opinion-leader Roger Marsh.

Roger hosts "The Bottom Line Show" on KBRT AM 740, which broadcasts to a live audience of several hundred thousand listeners throughout California, Oregon, Colorado and Texas.

Volunteer Update

We are so very grateful for the volunteers now working on our team. Recently a volunteer stepped up to help with our data base entry and eNewsletter distribution. We now have a need for volunteer(s) with knowledge of Power Point, Twitter and/or editing our Squarespace-built website:

www.angelsforhigher.org

If interested, please email your availability to Bob: rmhenderson@cox.net

Prayers Requested for Upcoming Trip to New York

We are asking for prayers for Trevor and Bob's trip to New York, April 15- April 18. Please pray for God to grant His favor to Angels for Higher throughout their travels.

Hopefully, when they return Trevor and Bob will have some exciting news to share about the meetings they attended during their trip.

God is on the Move in

Angels for Higher's Ministry

We have already seen God move in some miraculous ways this year. The Cincinnati Reds hired four new greeters. The 66ers hired two new greeters.

Daniel's mom said,
"Congratulations Daniel & Shelby for becoming Greeters at the Team Store of the Inland Empire 66ers baseball team and securing your first, Real, PAID position! All Thanks goes to Robert Hendershot and his wonderful organization, Angels for Higher! Spreading awareness and acceptance throughout sports teams across America!"

A partnership with Mariner's Church has developed. Other exciting opportunities are in the works. We need your prayers, volunteering and gifts moving forward. Thank you again for your partnership in our ministry!
